Dear Sir

Enclosed please find a copy of a letter sent to you on Jan. 2, 2013 re. the subject above.
About this matter I have not yet received any answer from you or from Epiq Bankruptcy Solutions or from Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP.

Could you please be so kind to send me some information about the actual position of this case and when can I expect to receive some retribution from the investment I have done in Lehman Brothers bonds, 6 years ago.

Thank you.
Kind regards

Dear Sir

Enclosed please find a copy of my letter send today to Epiq Bankruptcy Solution as answer to Notice of the 379 th Omnibus Objection to Claims, including mine, with number 64556.

This is sent for you, just for your knowledge and consideration.

I am a retired civil engineer, 79 years old (born on 2nd May, 1933), living permanently in Portugal, that applied his economies buying 50 bonds of Lehman Brothers, and now needs this money for his and his wife's necessities and is waiting for the resolution of the Claim 64556 , presented on Nov. 2009.

Sincerely Yours,

J. J. R. Dragao
